

Kick-Off

Receive 20 IIBA PDUs/CDUs for full participation

Topic 1

User Story Basics

- Making your user stories effective by using best practices to collaborate and incorporate the user perspective
- On-Demand coursework, community accountability, live calls with practice work, Q/A sessions, and feedback from an expert

Topic 2

Acceptance Criteria for User Stories

- Defining what makes the user story acceptable using Gherkin to define conditions, scenarios, and user perspective
- On-Demand coursework, community accountability, live calls with practice work, Q/A sessions, and feedback from an expert

Topic 3

User Story Splitting

- Defining meaningful increments of smaller stories for the team to get feedback on and complete within a shorter time
- On-Demand coursework, community accountability, live calls with practice work, Q/A sessions, and feedback from an expert

Topic 4

Tech Stories, Vendor Stories, Data Stories, etc...

- Working with highly technical work and user stories for technical things, understanding technical debt.
- On-Demand coursework, community accountability, live calls with practice work, Q/A sessions, and feedback from an expert

Topic 5

User Story Mapping

- Helping teams see the details as part of a bigger picture by knowing how and when to use a user story map
- On-Demand coursework, community accountability, live calls with practice work, Q/A sessions, and feedback from an expert

Topic 6

Feedback Jam

- Reflecting on Agile BA techniques by practicing and getting feedback
- On-Demand coursework, community accountability, live calls with practice work, Q/A sessions, and feedback from an expert